NOTICE OF FILING

Qwest Corporation ("QC") hereby files in this Docket a letter from Telcordia Technologies, Inc. (formerly Bellcore) to the Arizona Corporation Commission, dated January 19, 2006, regarding the ability of the Arizona Corporation Commission to receive information from the Telcordia® Local Exchange Routing Guide (LERG™).

As the Commission is aware, the Recommended Opinion and Order in this Docket adopts the Staff's condition that QC shall provide LERG information to Staff every six months for three years. Telcordia is an unaffiliated software and information processing service company that owns the rights to the LERG. QC and other carriers hold licenses to use the LERG. QC has advised Telcordia about this provision of the Recommended Order. In response, Telcordia has

1 asked that QC refer the Commission to Telcordia to get the LERG data. Telcordia has also
2 written the attached letter, and asked QC to present the letter to the Commission.

3 In essence, in the attached letter Telcordia asks that the Commission Staff contact
4 Telcordia directly for the LERG information Staff desires, and states that Telcordia will address
5 the Staff's LERG data needs.

Dear Chairperson:

You recently made an inquiry to obtain Telcordia® LERG™ Routing Guide (LERG) information. Interest was expressed to get this information periodically throughout the year. Telcordia provides a website with limited LERG™ data for the primary purpose to be used by state commission offices.

We would suggest that you contact Telcordia for further assistance to obtain the LERG™ data needed. Once we have received your request, we can provide you with the website information. If you should find that the website does not provide the necessary data, we can work with you to address your LERG™ data needs. You can contact Adam Newman at 732-699-6425, email anewman@telcordia.com, to further discuss.

Sincerely,
